SHOW GUIDELINES

CARE OF ANIMALS:

- Feed and water cups will not be provided
- Exhibitors are responsible for caring for their own rabbits
- All animals in the show room must be entered in the National show or in a reserved coop
- No animals will be allowed in carriers in the hotel, cars or show room
- There will be no EXTRA COOPS for “sale” rabbits
- If you want to coop sale rabbits, they have to be entered in show or out of building by the time the hall closes

GENERAL SHOWROOM RULES:

Parents are responsible for their children at all times. No dogs, cats, scooters, roller skates, skate boards, or roller blades are allowed in the buildings with the exception of certified Service Animals or equipment for the handicapped. The show committee shall decide any and all questions which are not specifically covered by the show rules. All decisions will be final. Any animal showing signs of sickness or disease will be removed from the showroom as determined by the committee. No one other than show personnel are allowed behind the show table during judging.

Rabbits will not be permitted to leave the showroom until Sunday, April 29, 8:00 AM. Any violation of this rule will result in loss of entry fees and awards earned. Rabbits left in the showroom after completion on Sunday become the property of MWHLC. Please check that you have the correct rabbits when you are leaving! Smoking is not allowed in any of the buildings or the hotel. While every precaution will be taken to ensure the safety of exhibitors, and animals, all entries are made at the owner’s risk. Show personnel, judging staff, runners, show officials, show staff, and the Midwest Holland Lop Club are in no way responsible for the death, threat, or injury of any animals or exhibitors.

This is an official ARBA and HLRSC sanctioned show. The latest revised rules of these associations will govern the show. Entering the show indicates your acceptance of these rules.
